Carrie Birling, Event Coordinator

A-mazing Events, LLC Celebrates Ten-Year Anniversary

Appleton, WI May, 2015 . . . A-mazing Events, LLC celebrates their ten-year anniversary with the launch of a new website and the addition of Carrie Birling as Event Coordinator.

A-mazing Events, LLC was founded in 2005 by Ms. Joey Reader with a commitment to designing and executing efficient and flawless events. “I wanted to be in the forefront of establishing the event and meeting planning industry in the New North and elevate the quality and scope of meeting and event services,” said Ms. Reader.

In celebration, A-mazing Events has launched an updated website which includes a comprehensive gallery of the Company’s unique prop and décor rentals available to enhance special events. Visitors to the site will view everything from backdrops and lounge furniture, to candelabras. Each piece can be customized for a specific event.

Carrie Birling has been named to the position of Event Coordinator. In this role, Ms. Birling uses her strong event-planning background to coordinate events for multiple locations simultaneously, working closely with sponsors and volunteers. Her education includes a degree in Marketing from Fox Valley Technical College and previous experience as Event Coordinator at Capital Credit Union and Associate Marketing Manager at Fox River Mall.

Founder and President, Ms. Joey Reader, said, “Carrie’s skills are great assets for our clients who host conferences and exhibits. She has a keen visual eye when planning events, and her ability to multi-task and stay focused is unsurpassed.”

A-mazing Events, LLC is a full service event design, coordinating, and consulting company. The company specializes in corporate meetings and events including incentive trips, conferences, team building activities, corporate anniversary celebrations, appreciation events and destination management services. Product line expansions include specialty linen, chocolate fountain, and event prop rentals. To learn more about the comprehensive services offered, please visit <http://www.a-mazingevents.com>.

Efficient and flawless events - leaving you free to focus on your guests!
